OVATION FOR HUGHES

NEVADA Republicans should wake up to the necessity of preparing a royal western reception to the next president of the United States, who is due to arrive in Reno and deliver an address on the afternoon of the twenty-third of August. This visit will emphasize the opening of the campaign in Nevada with a change of administration and a change of heart that is signalized by the passing of the Bull Moose ticket, which alone was responsible for the fact that Nevada lost a Republican senator at the last election at the same time that it lost its regular Republican majority that should have returned the veteran Massey and the keen witted Sam Platt to the upper house of Congress by a good rousing majority. This is history. There is no disposition on the part of the Bonanza to exhumate old issues, for this paper believes the past is able to take care of itself and that the future and present are entitled to the concentrated effort of every honest citizen who hopes to restore Nevada to its proper place in the constellation of states as an upholder of Republican principles. This is the time to get active with the preliminaries to insure a successful trip to the Hughes reception. There are many things to be done before the arrangements can be consummated, for it is not every business man who can afford to leave his affairs without a moment's preparation. For voters in the northern or western part of the state there will not be much difficulty in adjusting engagements so they may attend the meeting at which Governor Hughes will speak, but off on the desert, where distance has to be considered and train arrangements have to be made over the wire, it becomes a matter of some urgency to begin at once and then keep moving until the full capacity of the train is sold. The train must leave the southern terminus in the evening, and therefore sleeping car accommodations must be provided, and, as the Pullman company does not always have a surplus of cars nearer than Sacramento, time must be allowed for the transference of rolling stock from that division point. The Southern Pacific will be called upon to haul numerous extra trains on that day, as every voter in Nevada, regardless of party, will be interested in seeing the great reformer who brought order out of chaos in New York and will be called upon to readjust the political machinery of this nation after next March.

Every county in the state is arranging to have a large representation at Reno on that memorable day and some idea of the enthusiasm aroused may be determined from the fact that the small town of Fallon announces that it will be represented by at least forty large motor cars loaded to capacity. Lovelock, Rochester, Carson City, Virginia City, Minden and Winnemucca are all engaged in filling out requisitions for car accommodation for Hughes' day and it is not going too far to expect several hundred from Tonopah, Goldfield and the intervening country between here and Wabuska. The committee having the matter in charge hopes to secure a one fare rate for the round trip, which will place the cost of travel lower than at any time within recent memory. The only loss of time involved would be one business day, and there is not a single citizen who cannot afford to take that time away from his ordinary business for the sake of seeing and greeting the chief standard bearer of the Republican party.

PULLING DOWN THE PARTY

HOWE and Norcross are quoted as saying they will not yield until after the Republican convention nominates a party candidate for United States senator. Mr. Howe especially indulges in a sarcastic reference to the fact that the chief Republican organ of Nevada is owned by Sam Platt and therefore the voters are not in a position to acquire first hand information of what is going on in the state outside their immediate vicinity. The same complaint could be paid Mr. Howe himself, whose organ, the Goldfield Tribune, has displayed more than passing interest in the return of Mr. Howe. No one has said that Mr. Howe controls the editorial columns of the Tribune, but, at the same time, that gentleman does not hesitate to accuse Mr. Platt of using his newspaper for the sole purpose of deceiving the voters of Nevada and deluding them into the belief that they must elect him to the Senate.

"I desire all my friends to know that I am still in the race to win," remarked Mr. Howe recently to a reporter in Reno, and thus gave the public the first information that he was taking the contest seriously.

Mr. Howe is acting like the small boy in passing through a country lane without any big brother to stand by him in event of encountering a spooky traveler and is whistling to keep his courage up. Mr. Howe has been in the newspaper game long enough to know that the editor of no one paper could carry the policy of deception to such an extent as to blind his readers to the facts. If Churchill county did not express a preference for Sam Platt and the Reno Gazette said it did the mere assertion of the paper would not alter the figures or lead other newspapers to accept the statement without trying to establish the veracity of the author. Sufficient time has elapsed for every county in Nevada to know where its people stand on the question of senatorial preference and there is not the slightest protest against acceptance of the figures first printed by the Bonanza and other newspapers seeking reliable information.

ENGLISH WHEAT CORNER FOUND

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, August 16.—The attack on the Chicago wheat pit, which the London papers have accused of conspiring to force up the price of wheat, was diverted against the English dealers today when the Times asked if there was not a corner in wheat in London as well as in America.

"According to the latest reports from the London wheat market," says the Times, "only one grade, and that of the finest quality, was offered for sale. Ordinarily our wheat market summary quotes twelve types of imported wheat, but the current issue quotes only one of these and that the most expensive."

PAPER BOX MAKERS GO OUT ON STRIKE

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, August 16.—Leaders of the striking paper box makers assert that there are now 15,000 workers on strike here. The manufacturers, however, declared only between 2000 and 3000 of their employees are involved.

There were several disorders during the day in which the police answered riot calls to rescue drivers of delivery wagons from violence.

The demands of the strikers include a new wage scale of $25 a week for expert cutters, who formerly received $18; cutters who were paid $12 a week now ask $18 and setters who earned $16 a week want $22.

ATTRACTIONS AT THE STATE FAIR AT FALLON

Aside from the fine stock and large and varied agricultural and horticultural exhibits at the State Fair at Fallon, on September 11 to 16 inclusive, every visitor from other parts of the state will want to see the great Lahontan dam, 120 feet in height, storing 290,000 acre feet of water for the irrigation of "Uncle Sam's Nine Million Dollar Farm." There are many attractive features on the Truckee-Carson irrigation project that are well worth a visit. Attend the State Fair and see these attractions.

WAS 13 INNING PITCHING DUEL

(By Associated Press.) BOSTON, August 16.—"Babe" Ruth came out the victor in a 13-inning pitching duel with Walter Johnson yesterday, the Boston Americans defeating Washington in the latter's final appearance at Fenway park this season 1 to 0. For twelve innings Johnson held the Red Sox to four widely scattered hits. The thirteenth session was his undoing, the champions getting three hits in this inning, netting the game's only run. Barry led off with a drive which carried off Johnson's hand when he attempted to stop it, and went for a hit. Lewis struck out and Hobbitts tied to Milan. Walker singled to center, Barry making third on the play. Gardner connected for his third hit of the day with a single to center, and Barry scored. Three fast double plays by Boston in the last four innings prevented Washington from scoring.

PEACEMAKER MAY SUCCEED

(By Associated Press.) LONDON, August 16.—County Julius Andrássy has refused to succeed Baron Von Burian as Austrian foreign minister without guarantees from the emperor that the political integrity in Hungary shall be respected. The dispatch says that the emperor hesitates to concede such guarantees. Keen interest is shown in the possibility of Count Andrássy taking office as foreign minister, as he is supposed to be a strong advocate of Austria making a separate peace and was formerly credited with being a warm admirer of England.
